NBCI Cautions Race Riots Likely if Michael Dunn is Not Convicted for Murdering Jordan Davis

Blame Lays Squarely on Stand Your Ground Law and ALEC

Washington DC – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) a faith-based coalition of 34,000 churches comprised of 15 denominations and 15.7 million African American churchgoers calls on Christians everywhere to pray for the soul of America. The church is in no way advocating violence but if Mr. Dunn is not convicted of murdering Jordan Davis it may unleash a wave of violence that the church cannot stop. Black mothers and fathers must know that their black boys will be protected by the law and not be a victim of the law. How much pain must a race of people continue to take?

A favorable verdict for Mr. Dunn will undoubtedly ignite deeper racial divides and instigate conflict. The church cannot continue to tell black mothers that they must sacrifice their boys to the racist fears of white males and to a law deeply rooted in evil. The American Legislative Exchange Council, ALEC, is the true guilty part in this case. They have created justifiable homicide, rooted in racial discrimination. ALEC must be held responsible for every single death around the country.

Rev. Anthony Evans NBCI President, says, “All my life I’ve tried to create a symphony of brotherhood, and now I must spend the rest of my life fighting against organizations such as ALEC who do nothing but legislate for the privileged at the expense of the poor and underserved. Do not expect the church to utilize its enormous moral power to stop non-violent protests. This verdict has the potential to undermine the principle of God and our fragile democracy and should be considered with the utmost severity. We will find out soon whether Jordan Davis death serves any purpose whatsoever when it comes down to stand your ground. Legal homicide must stop – in the name of God. ”
