The National Black Church Initiative Has Joined With Attorney Kim G. King In Offering The PICKPACK™ And The Safe Stop Technique To State Attorney Generals Around The Country

This is an incredible public safety program

Washington, DC – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI), a faith-based coalition of 34,000 Churches comprised of 15 denominations and 15.7 million African Americans, has joined with Attorney Kim King in offering Attorney Generals around the country the PICKPACK™ program and the Safe Stop Technique. Both of these programs are considered by law enforcement and safety experts to be a step in the right direction to prevent unwarranted and unnecessary police shootings. This is the National Black Church Initiative’s way of supporting law enforcement across the country in reaching out to our state Attorney Generals to keep our communities safe.

Rev. Anthony Evans President of the National Black Church Initiative says, “I am very happy to work with Attorney Kim G. King who is an excellent attorney, author and a master trainer. She has created an extraordinary public safety program that the National Black Church Initiative has endorsed, the PICKPACK™ program. We know that joining the National Black Church Initiative

Safe Stop Technique and the PICKPACK™ program will help reduce citizen and police confrontations and turn that interaction into a positive experience. We look forward to working with state Attorney Generals, Governors, State Legislators, law enforcement, the US Justice Department and other likeminded individuals to help save lives around the country.”

The National Black Church Initiative Safe Stop Technique

This is how it works. When an individual is stopped by the police, especially a minority or African American, the individual tells the policeman "I want to go through the safe stop procedures." The ten procedures documentation assure the safety of both the motorist and the police.

The PICKPACK™

The PICKPACK™ is a small tangible invention that has a huge payoff. Specifically, the PICKPACK™ is a valuable holder for a copy of your Driver’s License/ID, Insurance Card, Registration, and License to Carry a Weapon, if applicable. It sits on your vehicle’s dashboard or can be attached to your vehicle’s visor. An Attorney invented the PICKPACK™ after researching the fatalities resulting from routine police stops. She discovered that 92% of those fatalities was a by-product of the police officer “not being able to see the victims' hands when they were reaching for their Driver’s License”.
