

BE IN THE KNOW About HIV Prevention

Health literacy is essential for preventing HIV. However, at times it may be challenging to navigate all the critical and potentially life-saving information available, particularly surrounding prevention and discussions of sexual health. This 2-part webisode series will provide you with a wealth of information on strategies for HIV prevention, including available medications and how to discuss the information with your health care provider, ultimately empowering you to protect yourself and preserve your health.

START HERE

WEBISODE PART 1

Beyond the Rumors
PrEP, HIV, and Your Health

CONTINUE HERE

WEBISODE PART 2

PrEP
The Power of Prevention

In addition to the webisodes, please take advantage of the downloadable resources and transcripts.

We want your feedback!

A survey will be sent asking for your opinions on the impact of the program.
Please share with your family and friends as well as your community.