The National Black Church Initiative Condemns Senator Harry Reid Super PAC for Utilizing the Image of Dead Black Teenagers

The Black Church will not let this stand

Washington, DC – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) a coalition of 34,000 African American churches constituting 15.7 members urges its members to condemn Senator Harry Reid and the Democratic Party for utilizing the image of Michael Brown and Trayvon Martin in a vail attempt to motivate black voters. Black voters do not need any motivation to vote. The voter ID laws prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that both Democrats and Republicans are afraid when black voters vote in record numbers.

Reverend Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative declares “Sen. Harry Reid has it wrong. The Republicans are not the devil neither are they the personification of evil. Neither of the political parties have done anything over the years to eradicate black youth unemployment which in some communities can be as high as 50%. Both parties have done nothing to even the playing field for young African Americans .They only do the bidding for the rich and powerful—this represents the real evil that the black church has to fight every day to seek peace and justice in the precious memory of these two young men.”

If the democrats voted the interest of black voters in the areas of housing, health, employment, education and economic development, they will not have to stoop to this type of political trickery to motivate black folks to vote. The Black Church strongly feels that Senator Harry Reid and the democrats have violated and disturbed the soul of our young black princes who have given their lives to dramatize the racist, violent nature of America. It is no way that they honor the precious memory of these two young men by utilizing them in a MacDonald type advertisement.
