The National Black Church Initiative Questions The Jewish Community's Selfishness

Washington, D.C. – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI), a coalition of 150,000 African American and Latino faith communities, comprising 27.7 million members, raises critical questions concerning the definition of antisemitism. Considering the Jewish community's objections to Mayor Mandani's rescinding antisemitic resolution. The Black Church wants to know why the Jewish community is so selfish. Does the Jewish community have any concerns or feelings about the rest of Humanity?

How can the Jewish community justify the genocide of 100,000 Palestinians and many innocent people, many of whom were women and children?

Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative says "As religious leaders of 150,000 black churches, are we anti-Semitic because we question the religious morality of the State of Israel's killing of the innocent?"

Is Almighty God Jewish, and is he only concerned with the Jewish people, or is he concerned with the rest of humanity as well?

ABOUT NBCI

The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) is a coalition of 150,000 African American and Latino churches, comprising 27.7 million members, that works to eradicate racial disparities in healthcare, technology, education, housing, and the environment.

NBCI's mission is to provide critical wellness information to all of its members, congregants, churches, and the public. The National Black Church Initiative's methodology utilizes faith and sound health science. We also offer our member congregants and the public helpful, science-based tips on developing and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.
